PROGRAMS FOR OPHTHALMOLOGISTS, RESIDENTS,
FELLOWS, AND ALLIED HEALTH PROFESSIONALS

JULIA A. HALLER, MD
Ophthalmologist-in-Chief

I demand more of myself than anyone else could ever expect.

-Julius "Dr. J" Erving
Philadelphia 76ers Forward (1976-1987)

It's not the will to win that matters—everyone has that. It's the will to prepare to win that matters.

-Paul "Bear" Bryant
Alabama Crimson Coach (1958-1982)

Sports metaphors and analogies abound in a competitive field like eye surgery, and I suspect most of us resonate with the words of both of these all-stars, the iconic Philadelphia 76er forward and Alabama Crimson coach. We share Dr. J's insight that the high performance athletes in medicine (or basketball) are our own most severe critics, and have demonstrated already what Bear Bryant called the will to commit time — many years in our case—to prepare to win.

The Wills Eye Hospital Academic Calendar lays out our prescription for the special physician who marches to the demanding beat of the elite performer's drummer: the highest quality ophthalmic educational experience available anywhere, crafted by expert teachers for those who have the will and the determination to prepare to win.

This year's calendar features both famous classics like our Friday morning Chiefs Rounds (rebroadcast three hours later for West Coast aficionados), and new additions such as live-streaming of our monthly Visiting Professor series. Our Jaeger Lecture will take a creative tack, bringing our alumnus entrepreneur Marnix Heersink to campus for reflections on a unique and innovative pathway that has led to unprecedented contributions and philanthropy – for example, the naming of the University Alabama's School of Medicine in his honor. The Wills Eye "Meet the Experts" returns to the AAO in Chicago this fall, and in March 2023, we will celebrate 75 years of our Wills Alumni Conference.

Whether you join us here on Walnut Street, or at the AAO in Chicago, or online, we are confident you will find our case-based, practical, clinically-oriented research and technology updates meet the demands you place on yourself, and prepare you for the big wins your patients expect and deserve.

I look forward to seeing you soon! Roll, Wills Tide!

Warmest regards,

JULIA A. HALLER, MD

*Ophthalmologist-in-Chief and William Tasman, MD, Endowed Chair
Wills Eye Hospital
Professor and Chair of Ophthalmology
Sidney Kimmel Medical College at Thomas Jefferson University*

The Wills Knowledge Portal on CloudCME is a fabulous resource of outstanding continuing medical education for ophthalmologists around the globe. Participants can live-stream popular educational events—including Chiefs Rounds, Visiting Professor Rounds and our clinically relevant sub-specialty updates--or watch them on OnDemand at a time of their choosing.

Unable to attend our in-person Ophthalmology Review Course in Philadelphia? You can register for our companion OnDemand Review Course and get eleven months' access to 63 hours of lectures and CME credits. The Portal also allows participants to sign-in with their phones and download CME certificates and transcripts. Be sure to register for an account at willseye.cloud-cme.com.

WILLS EYE KNOWLEDGE PORTAL

The Wills Eye Knowledge Portal on CloudCME is a remarkable resource for outstanding continuing medical education for ophthalmologists around the globe. Participants can live-stream popular educational events including Chiefs Rounds, Visiting Professor Rounds and our clinically relevant subspecialty updates, or watch them on OnDemand at a time of their choosing. Unable to attend our in-person Ophthalmology Review Course in Philadelphia? You can register for our companion OnDemand Review Course and get eleven months' access to 63 hours of lectures and CME credits. The Portal also allows participants to sign-in with their phones and download CME certificates and transcripts.

Additional benefits include:

- Texting or scanning attendance by mobile phone.
- High-definition quality OnDemand video streaming.
- Automated course reminders for faculty and learners.
- Seamless process to earn American Board of Ophthalmology (MOC) points.
- 24/7 access to CME certificates, event registration receipts, course transcripts.
- View and annotate presenter slides in real time via the CloudCME Mobile App.

Be sure to register for an account at willseye.cloud-cme.com. For more information contact us at cme@willseye.org

At Wills Eye Hospital, world-wide access to education helps us to reach our goal of preserving sight and improving clinical care of patients with eye disease. Throughout the year, Wills Eye provides many opportunities to access live-streamed educational experiences online.

Chiefs Rounds

On Friday mornings, the tables are turned during Chiefs Rounds when residents present mystery cases to attendings of Wills Eye Hospital. Residents follow the thought processes of the attendings from clinical presentation to differential diagnosis and management.

Retinal Imaging and Surgical Conferences

The Wills Eye Retina Service Imaging and Surgical Conferences are interactive engaging forums during which Retina fellows present multi-modal imaging of interesting cases and their management to the attendings of Wills Eye Hospital.

Saturday Updates

The Wills Eye Saturday Update Series is the premier venue for physicians from each service area to present the latest procedures, research and treatment in their subspecialty.

Breakfast with Wills Eye

Zeba A. Syed, MD hosts Wills Eye faculty in these lively discussions on the latest clinical innovations and challenges in ophthalmology.

Shields Ocular Oncology Rounds

Carol L. Shields, MD, director of the Wills Eye Ocular Oncology Service, leads a master discussion of fresh cases, their diagnosis and management.

MOST LAB UPDATE

The William Maul Measey Ophthalmic Surgical Training (MOST) Lab has had continued success through the recent stages of the pandemic. Michael Abendroth, MD has been pivotal in this and has been named Co-Director of the MOST Lab alongside Director Douglas Wisner, MD. We have developed an ever-growing list of dozens of resident courses throughout the academic year for all classes, taught by a diverse group of talented attending staff. The Lab has been utilized for both medical student and industry education, and our physical plant has become a model for multiple institutions throughout the US looking to implement similar training protocols.

Contact Marie Fiorillo (mfiorillo@willseye.org) for further information and curriculae. Thank you to all our donors who have transformed surgical education at Wills through support of the MOST Lab!

WILLS EYE SURGICAL LIBRARY

The Wills Eye Surgical Library is an outstanding collection of free videos, photos and operative reports by Wills Eye faculty. This premier destination for online medical education features demonstrations of common ophthalmic surgical procedures, new techniques, and surgical pearls in all subspecialties along with surgical curriculum lectures and wet labs to help ophthalmologists around the world expand their skills. Explore the collection today!

Visit library.willseye.org

ADVANCING OUR MISSION

JOSE PULIDO, MD, MS, MBA, MPH

Wills Eye Hospital, which was established through a bequest from Quaker merchant, James Wills, still relies on philanthropy to advance our mission. Support from alumni and friends has a tremendous impact on improving clinical care, pushing forward the boundaries of research, and training the next generation of ophthalmologists. Some examples of the power of philanthropy include:

- The Fund for Vision supports our greatest needs. Providing financial resources for Wills Eye to respond to urgent and emerging initiatives, this Fund gives the flexibility to have an immediate impact in areas of need.
- The William Maul Measey Ophthalmic Surgery Training (MOST) Lab is one of the most advanced training labs of its kind. Utilizing the latest technology, this microsurgical training facility enables our doctors to efficiently and safely learn ophthalmic surgery.
- The J. Arch McNamara Ophthalmic Education Center is at the heart of our educational programs. With classroom and administrative spaces, the McNamara Center offers support to ophthalmologists at every stage of their training.

To support these initiatives or other priorities, visit the Wills Eye Foundation website at www.willseye.org/giving or call 215-440-3154.

FOUNDED BY PHILANTHROPY | DRIVEN BY MISSION | FOCUSED ON YOU

On Oct. 29, 2021, Wills Eye hosted the inaugural Edward A. Jaeger, MD Lecture which featured invited speaker, Thomas A. Oetting, MS, MD from the University of Iowa. The Jaeger Lecture was established by the Jaeger Family to honor the esteemed career and contributions of the longtime Wills Eye physician-educator.

The Katherine G. Gold, MD Award was presented for the first time to Marisa A. Schoen, MD at the 2022 Wills Eye Graduation for her outstanding commitment and leadership at Wills Eye. This award was established by Dr. Gold (Class of 2010) and her husband Steve to honor an outstanding senior resident who exemplifies the Wills Eye spirit of empathy, kindness, and selflessness.

More than 300 attendees enjoyed the glitz, glamor, and fun at the Wills Eye Ball on June 25, 2022 at The Union League of Philadelphia. This year's event celebrated the Cataract and Primary Eye Care (CPEC) Service and honored two of its longtime leaders, Robert S. Bailey Jr., MD and Mark H. Blecher, MD. Funds from the event will benefit the CPEC Service and the resident education program.

As a world-class academic medical institution, Wills Eye Hospital is passionate about advancing ophthalmic knowledge and providing meaningful opportunities for learning.
